

Code of Conduct for Players, Parents, Spectators & Coaches

INTRODUCTION:

DBB is a national youth baseball organization that governs youth baseball activity, emphasizing fun, fair play and sportsmanship. The mission of our program is to provide a recreational outlet that enhances every participant's enjoyment of their baseball experience. To better achieve this goal, we are outlining a Code of Conduct for all parents, coaches and players involved in DBB Baseball. The Code of Conduct is intended to place a renewed emphasis on parents, players and coaches abiding by the rules and regulations of the game. It is expected that everyone will maintain a cooperative attitude while upholding the ideals of sportsmanship.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Violations of Official Rules & Regulations - (Playing Field – Dugout)

The umpire has the authority to “disqualify any player, coach, manager or substitute for objections to decisions or for unsportsmanlike conduct or language, and to eject such disqualified person from the playing field” or dugout .

Note: An ejection, resulting in a player being removed from the premises, requires the disqualified player to be accompanied by an adult.

Tournament Activities - Premises

The DBB Tournament Director, or his designee/s, has the authority to “request the removal” from the premises of any individual for unsportsmanlike conduct, or inappropriate language, violence, or threats of violence. Furthermore, any person found to be in violation of the Code of Conduct may be immediately removed.

Violations of the CODE OF CONDUCT may result in, but are not limited to, the following based on the severity of the offence:

1. Full or partial restriction from league/tournament privileges
2. Suspension from participation in activities of DBB;
3. Expulsion from the program;
4. Loss of opportunity to participate (permanent ban) in any future activities.

Prior to taking any of the actions specified in Items: 2; 3; and 4 as found above, the party charged with violation of the CODE OF CONDUCT will be advised of the charges against them and given an opportunity to respond. In the event that disciplinary action is taken, the party may exercise the RIGHT OF APPEAL to the Executive Board of DBB, Inc.

As a member organization of USA Baseball, DBB is required to report to USA Baseball any individual the organization has banned or suspended for any reason. USA Baseball disseminates the aggregated lists of ineligible participants to all external organizations. Once removed from one sector of our sport, it is the intent that these individuals not reappear in the entire baseball network.

CONCLUSION

DBB, Inc. reserves the right to impose penalties, including, without limitation, game suspensions, dismissal, suspension or revocation of a franchise for serious or repeated violation of this Code of Conduct or other conduct deemed to be harmful to the organization.

DBB leagues and/or their sponsoring organization have the responsibility to protect the young people playing in its local program. DBB created a risk management plan to reduce and/or prevent the occurrences of misconduct in DBB affiliated league baseball programs as well as to reduce the liability potential for DBB leagues and/or the sponsoring organizations. Misconduct can negatively impact participants, league officials/staff members, family, friends, and the sport.
